Unit grades indicate the value I've assigned to each position as rosters currently stand (UFAs are removed, but RFAs and ERFAs are included). The scale is 1 (worst/in need of major attention) to 10 (in extremely good shape with little need). This can best be described as a subjective process, though plenty of resources are utilized, including the terrific PFF player grades. The three columns to the right are weighted offensive, defensive and overall rankings.

Potential cuts/cap casualties/trade pieces
